Institute of Business & Finance, Announces a New Board of Advisors

La Jolla, CA, July 19, 2010 - Raymond Ambrosino has just been named as a new member of the Board of Advisors for the Institute of Business & Finance (IBF) located in La Jolla, CA. As a board member, Mr. Ambrosino is responsible for providing the Institute with guidance as to its academic content, programs, certification testing and ethical standards. This will be Mr. Ambrosino's third consecutive year serving on the Board of Advisors for the Institute of Business & Finance.

Mr. Ambrosino was nominated to the IBF Board from a field of over 3,000 prospective candidates based on his background, experience, expertise and ethics. According to the Institute's director, Dr. Gordon Williamson, "Mr. Ambrosino demonstrated the kind of experience and integrity we value."

ABOUT THE INSTITUTE OF BUSINESS & FINANCE – Founded in 1988 IBF is a non-profit provider of financial education and designations to members of the financial services industry. IBF is the fourth oldest provider of financial certification marks in the United States. In 1988, IBF launched its first certification program, CFS (Certified Fund Specialist). Today IBF offers four additional financial designation programs: CAS (Certified Annuity Specialist), BCE (Board Certified in Estate Planning), RIS (Retirement Income Specialist) and CTS (Certified Tax Specialist).
